From the Pastor:

Good morning Brothers and Sisters,

God is moving in such a powerful way around us. We must listen closely to hear His voice and not miss what He is doing. We see miracles when we are looking. I believe we are in the midst of a life changing move of God in our church right now. Get into the flow and allow the Holy Spirit to lead you into all truth.

Next Sunday we will have an afternoon fellowship and cookout at mine and June's house. Everyone is invited; please feel free to bring visitors and guests. It is a time to swim, hang out, fellowship, eat, relax and enjoy ourselves. We will not have intercessory prayer or evening service on August 10. Please bring your own towels and swimsuits; also please wash your swimsuits if you have recently used them in the lake, river, ocean or another pool. This will help prevent the spread of algae. The church will provide beef hamburgers and beef hot dogs along with mustard, mayo, ketchup and buns. If you would like any other meat cooked please bring it with you. Please bring side dishes chips, potato salad, onions, chili, etc. Denise, Valerie and Chelle are the coordinating committee for fellowship dinners so talk to one of them.

Bro. Gary Gatlin will be with us August 17. He is a good friend, a gifted preacher and prophet I know we will be blessed having him with us. His website is www.garygatlin.com.

We are planning to have a convention next year the first weekend in May. Please pray for the meetings and make notes on your calendars for that time. I believe it will be a blessed time appointed by our Father for an outpouring of His spirit and power.

Tina Kool is leading a small group called "First Things First" at Tabernacle of Faith in Douglasville. She has asked to let everyone know they are invited to come sit in or join the group. It is meeting on Thursday evenings from 7-8pm. Tabernacle of Faith is on Malone Road. Tina, Karl or I will be glad to give you directions.

Carlton Pearson is hosting a Leadership Summit in Atlanta, September 21-24. Details are on the bulletin board or available at www.inclusionci.org. Bro. Harold Lovelace will be one of the featured speakers.

I need to meet with the trustees and officers for a couple of minutes to set a church meeting date after the morning service.

We need someone to clean the church for the month of August. If you would like to volunteer please let me know.

Please be in prayer for me in the coming days. I go back to work driving a school bus tomorrow. I am still a substitute driver but it is possible I will be put on as a regular driver in the next couple of weeks. I want to be obedient to God and not to miss Him in any capacity. Pray that I will be in God's will in all things and that I will hear Him clearly each step of my journey.

The Youth Explosion last night at Tabernacle of Faith was wonderful. Several different youth groups performed skits and dramatizations. It was very inspiring. God dealt with me in a very profound way. I can only say that God proved Himself to be God once again. Please be in prayer for the young people that stepped forward last night seeking God's love, strength and forgiveness. I was blessed to see God touch so many in such a powerful way. Tina Kool shared her testimony and challenged the people to be set free and they responded and God responded. I was truly blessed to see so many young people being ministered to by adults and other youth.

We need additional people to work with the youth in our church. We need someone for children's church to take either elementary or teens so that we can split them up. Until we get another volunteer beginning next week August 10 any child thirteen or older will remain in the sanctuary during the preaching service. This will allow the younger children to be ministered to and the older ones can be ministered to through the Sunday morning sermons. We will have a church meeting in the next couple of weeks to decide teachers and workers for the coming months. Please ask God what He would have you do!

I love you

God bless you always,

Johnny & June

Romans 1:16-17 (NIV)

¹⁶ I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. ¹⁷ For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."

Ron Handley, the head of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, speaking at a conference in New Mexico, said that the subtlety of sin and of compromise is so great that he meets with a group of friends each Monday and they ask each other these ten questions:

- Have you spent daily time in Scriptures and in prayer?
- Have you had any flirtatious or lustful attitudes, tempting thought or exposed yourself to any explicit materials that would not glorify God?
- Have you been completely above reproach in your financial dealings?
- Have you spent quality time with family and friends?
- Have you done your 100% best in your job, school, etc.?
- Have you told any half-truths or outright lies, putting yourself in a better light to those around you?
- Have you shared the gospel with an unbeliever this week?
- Have you taken care of your body through daily physical exercise and proper eating and sleeping habits?
- Have you allowed any person or circumstances to rob you of your joy?
- Have you lied to us on any of your answers today.¹

Have a Safe and Blessed Week

You are children of the King, heirs and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ
